ASCA Announces 2025 World Clinic Scholarship Presented by Swim Across America

The American Swimming Coaches Association (ASCA) is excited to announce that Swim Across America is generously sponsoring a scholarship for a deserving coach who has never been to a World Clinic before to attend the 2025 ASCA World Clinic in Reno, Nevada, September 2-5.

The Swim Across America Scholarship provides full registration for the ASCA World Clinic and covers accommodation at the Peppermill Reno hotel and up to $500 for travel.

The ASCA World Clinic, now in its 58th year, is the largest and most comprehensive annual gathering in the sport of swimming. The event features 50 speakers covering a wide range of topics, an expansive exhibition hall, coaching demonstration at an Endless Pool, and numerous socials and networking opportunities.

This initiative is part of SAA's ongoing commitment to advancing the sport of swimming and supporting the professional growth of dedicated coaches across the nation.

Applicants must be ASCA members who have never attended a World Clinic. Interested candidates are encouraged to complete the online application by February 28, 2025. The scholarship recipient will be notified by March 31, 2025.

"We deeply appreciate Swim Across America for their generosity and dedication to supporting the coaching community," said ASCA CEO Jennifer LaMont. "This scholarship underscores their acknowledgment of the critical role coaches play in developing athletes and teams. We can't wait to welcome the scholarship recipient to Reno this September."
